

Questions to ask your PT:

Do you have advanced training in evaluating and treating my condition?

How long have you been a PT?

How long have you been treating this condition?

What can I do at home to help with treatment of my condition?

Do you have any resources or materials that will help me understand my condition and my treatment?